4. Remediation and Removal of Dangerous Structures at Holly Avenue and Rock Landing South of Jessamine Street:

Mayor Kim Koniar stated that the boathouse structure located at Holly Avenue and Rock Landing South of Jessamine Street are dangerous to those that access the Magnolia River at these locations. Mayor Koniar stated that it has been discussed leaving the Jessamine Street Magnolia River access as is for kayakers after the removal of the structure. Mayor Kim Koniar stated that the owners of the boats in the Jessamine Street boathouse need to be contacted to remove their boats. Councilmember Steve Mobley stated he will contact the owners. Councilmember Steve Mobley made motion to authorize Mayor Koniar to remove dangerous structures at Holly Avenue and Rock Landing South of Jessamine Street. Second, by Marley Gardner. All in favor. Motion carried.

5. Public Comment:

Bob Holk – Bob Holk, resident of Jessamine Street, owns the adjacent property to the Jessamine Street structure. Mr. Holk is concerned about the hurry to remove the structure and the boathouse that is located next to the Magnolia River bridge off Magnolia Springs Highway. Mr. Holk inquired about the Town's plans after the structure is removed.
